

Head Chef and Hospitality Manager

Wigan area, circa. £25-£32k
(depending on experience)

We can offer you excellent terms and conditions, as well as investing in your ongoing professional development.

My Life is an innovative charity providing education, meaningful opportunities, employment and support for individuals with a wide range of needs and disabilities.

We have bases at Thompson House Equestrian Centre in Standish and at Leigh Sports Village.

Our Standish site hosts an amazing array of opportunities and we are about to launch an exciting new venture, which is a cafe bar that will be open to the public. We have invested significantly in developing an excellent commercial kitchen with all mod cons to deliver an exciting menu for the public, for people who use our service, people attending events on site, as well as organising specialist themed evenings.

We are seeking a Head Chef and Hospitality Manager with an entrepreneurial spark and motivation to get a new and exciting venture off the ground. The job involves building your own team to deliver outstanding quality food, front of house service and excellent training for students, as well as managing our pop-up kitchen and our three very successful holiday lets.

It will also include working with the My Life Learning Team to deliver high quality further education and work experience for young people with special educational needs and disabilities. This facility will enable young people with support needs to learn all aspects of catering and hospitality as part of their educational programme, enabling them to be work-ready.

This role is an exciting opportunity for someone to develop a real innovative local offer to the community, whilst making a huge difference to the lives of many.
